

	Poor	Fair	Good	Excellent	Outstanding
Presentation Content	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Hypothesis / Goals and Background Relevance and summary of background information; Clarity of connections to previous literature and broader issues; Project had a relevant goal or a logical hypothesis that was stated clearly and concisely; Broad impact beyond project clearly stated.
Experimental Logic Choice of experimental methods to address hypothesis or goal of project; Original thinking or innovation of technique; Discussion of controls or comparative groups; all appropriate controls or comparative groups were included.
Results Sufficient high quality data were presented to address hypothesis or goal of project; Presentation of data was clear, thorough and logical; Potential problems and alternative approaches were considered.
Conclusions and Future Work Reasonable conclusions were given and strongly supported with evidence; Conclusion(s) were connected to project goals; Relevance of conclusion(s) were discussed in a wider context.
Slide Presentation/Elements Components are clearly laid out, and easy to follow; Text is concise, free of spelling or typographical errors; background is unobtrusive; Figures and tables are appropriate and labeled correctly; Photographs/tables/graphs improve understanding and enhance visual appeal.
Student Presentation/Response	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Presence Presenter speaks clearly, naturally and with enthusiasm; Makes good eye contact; Uses few vocal fillers (e.g. um, uh, like, you know)
Connection with Audience Language choices are tailored to the audience's needs and expectations.
Knowledge and Information Presenter demonstrates strong knowledge of the research project and project background.
Understanding of Project Presenter answers difficult questions clearly and succinctly.
Overall Impression	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Provide a single score that reflects your overall impression of this presentation.
Total Score:							